Report on special lecture

Topic: ABC Interview Professional Skill Training

Resource Person: Mr. Punit RP – Social Worker and Freelance Skill Development Trainer.

Conducted on: 22nd August 2022

A special lecture on 'ABC Interview Professional Skill Training' was organized by the Department of Political Science. Mr. Punith R.P, a social worker and freelance skill development trainer, served as the resource person. The special lecture was presented on August 22, 2022, in lecture hall No. 2 of the Department of Political Science, for first- and second-year PG students. The lecture was attended by 21 students and staff members from the department.

The first part of the presentation consisted of a definition of each of the following terms: proficiency, employment, skill, and career. The speaker delivered some excellent insights on the significance of soft skills, which include increased communication and social graces, improved interpersonal interactions at work, and ease of management.

In the second half, the speaker put more emphasis on the students with relatively less exposure to soft skills training by providing insights such as developing and enhancing communication skills through establishing bio data and familiarizing oneself with digital knowledge. This would enable them to check the employability through various search engines and be prepared for the interviews. These are all benefits that are to be gained by developing soft skills. The workshop was both informative and interactive, and ended with many students requesting formore such sessions.
