Dr. Sheker Naik, Coordinator, Department of MBA (TTM) made the welcome address and Dr. Joseph P.D, Workshop Coordinator proposed the vote of thanks. All the speakers were focusing on the needs for conducting research methodology courses and expressed their concern over the quality degradation in research happening across India. Such workshops, according to them will provide orientation to the students to proceed with their research in a scientific and systematic way.

The first technical session was handled by Dr. Toney K Thomas, Head of School of Tourism Studies, M.G University, Kerala. He engaged 5 sessions focusing on philosophy of social sciences, designing conceptual framework setting and framing hypothesis and designing and validating research instruments. It was followed by the technical session handled by Prof. T.P.M Pakkala, Retired Professor, Department of Statistics, Mangalore University, highlighting the need and importance of literature review and multivariate analysis.

The first two session of the third day of workshop was handled by Dr. Arunima K.V , Faculty, Department of International Business, Central University of Kerala. She was speaking on the various approaches of qualitative research and the advantages and disadvantages of these two methods and also on the current trend of using a hybrid methodology or mixed methods whereby you combine these two methods. The third session of the day was handled by Dr. Ismail B, Retired Professor, Department of Statistics, Mangalore University covering regression models and applications.

All three sessions of day four was engaged by Dr. Yogesh Pai, Associate Professor, MIM, Manipal. He spoke on the citation and referencing and writing the research report and article. He also covered impact factor, H-index and Scopus Journals.

The entire sessions of fifth and sixth day of workshop was handled by Dr. Niyaz Panakaje, Assistant Professor, Department of Management Studies, Srinivas University, Mangalore. Those sessions were allocated for giving hands-on experience on data analysis by using multiple analytical tools. The relevant tools in SPSS were demonstrated by the Professor with suitable examples. He shared his data with students and students were given hands on experience of how to enter the data and how to do preliminary data analysis.

The six day National workshop concluded with the valedictory function on 7th March 2022 at Srinivas Mallya Seminar Hall, Management Block Mangalore University. Valedictory function was presided over by the Dr. Puttanna K, Chairman of Department of Business Administration, Mangalore University, Dr. Niyaz Panakaje, Assistant Professor, Department of Management Studies, Srinivas University, Mangalore was the Chief Guest for the function. Many of the participants expressed their opinion about the workshop during valedictory function. All those who have given their feedback had an opinion that this was the most valuable and memorable workshop that they have attended because all the particularities of doing social science research was covered by the workshop right from identifying a research problem, to formulating a research problem, developing a research design, developing a research hypothesis, preparing questionnaire and interview schedule, collecting data, entering it in SPSS, doing data analysis, doing qualitative research including ethnography, case study, phenomenology and finally report writing. All these aspects were covered in the workshop.

To conclude the research methodology workshop for scholars in social sciences turned out to be a rich experience for the participants, raising their confidence to proceed with scientific research and produce quality output.
