

Dr. Anita Ravishankar, the Director of the Centre, has over 20 years of teaching and research experience in the post graduate Department of Sociology at Mangalore University. Having worked with DANIDA as a Social Scientist in their Water and Sanitation sector, Dr. Anita Ravishankar has contributed substantially to the development of work plans, research questions, interfaced between Government and various NGOs, implemented short studies and has authored several research reports and policy papers. She has served as a Consultant to various International Funding agencies like ICCO, SCF New Zealand, and the Ford Foundation for their projects in the social sector. She has taught a course on Indian Sociology at Volda University at Volda, Norway. Dr Anita Ravishankar was invited to deliver lectures at the Gender Institute at the London School of Economics and Political Science, and spent a term at the MSH, Paris. Her areas of Research includes Gender Studies, Developmental Sociology, Family Sociology, Participatory Research Methodology and Spirituality. She has been associated with the Centre for Womens Studies', Mangalore University, as a member of its Working Committee since its inception and has conducted one study besides authoring two articles for the Centre.

Membership of Academic & Professional Bodies held by Faculty Members:

Dr Anita Ravishankar :

1. Life Member - Indian Sociological Association.
2. Life Member - Indian Association of Women's Studies.
3. Life Member - Global Society for Health Education and Promotion.
4. Life Member - Indian Association of Canadian Studies.
5. Life Member – Karnataka Sociological Society.
6. Life member - Kerala Sociological Society.