

Kind attention to Students:

Information regarding forfeiting the already allotted Open Elective courses

The allotment of Open Elective courses for the Second semester PG students is displayed in the website. Students who want to change their already allotted Open Elective courses should note the following:

Students who wish to change should note that they will loose the already allotted course and can choose only from the vacant seats remaining during counseling ONLY.

Please note that once your information/application is given to the Chairperson/Principal you will not have any claim on the already allotted Open Elective course. Those who apply should compulsorily attend the online counseling to be held on 27th May 2021 at 10:00 am (Link will be sent to the Chairperson/Principal). After submitting this application if you fail to attend counseling you will be allotted only left out Open Electives, not the already allotted course. The vacant seats list available in the website will give present vacant seats only. This will only give some idea about the chance of getting these courses but not sure.

Those who want to forfeit their Open Elective courses should give the following information to the Chairperson/Principal on or before 20th May 2020, 5 pm.

1. Name of the Candidate:
2. Register Number:
3. Email id:
4. Phone Number (preferably WhatsApp number):
5. Last four digits of your current course code (code of the subject you are studying):
6. Code of the already allotted Open Elective paper:

Please note:

Students have to submit for Change of Open Elective course through Department/College as applicable. Individual request directly from students to us will not be considered.
