REGULATIONS GOVERNING CERTIFICATE, DIPLOMA AND POST GRADUATE DIPLOMA COURSES IN TULU UNDER CORRESPONDENCE PROGRAMME.

(Framed under Section 44 (1)(c) of the KSU Act 2000)

Preamble:

Tulu is one of the developed Dravidian languages with a history of more than 2600 years. About ten million people claim Tulu as their mother- tongue. Most of them live in the coastal Karnataka and in the adjoining Districts of Chikmagalore, Kodagu, Shimoga and in Kasaragod District of Kerala. Besides being the mother- tongue of such big population, Tulu functions as a lingua- franca in the region.

Tulu literature dates back to the 14th century, during which time it is said that Epics were written in Tulu language and some of them have been published. Earlier Tulu literature in Tulu script which is also called Thigalari script.

Tulu is one of the prominent minority languages of the country and the vibrant Tuluva culture with the unique traditional feature like the Bhootharadhana, Nagaradhana and Yaksharadhana expression in the language. The Bassel Mission in the 19th century used Kannada Script to publish books in Tulu Literature. So the Kannada script became popular as it appeared in print

In order to popularise the Tulu language in schools and colleges the Karnataka Government has ordered to teach Tulu as 3rd language for the students of 6th standard to 10th standard from the Academic year 2010-11 in the District of Dakshina Kannada and Udupi.

Having considered the Governments initiative, the Karnataka Tulu Sahithya Academy has requested the University to start Certificate course in Tulu, Diploma course in Tulu and Post Graduate Diploma in Tulu. Hence the regulations.
