

VICE CHANCELLOR'S ADVISORY:-

As we are going through tough time fighting the menace of COVID-19, I call upon all students to maintain calm and proper health. I know that these days are filled with challenge, anxiety, stress and uncertainty. Therefore I request you not to worry much. Mental well being of the students is one prime concern during this lockdown. So relax and concentrate on your health.

The University Administration will take proper measures to safeguard the interest of students. The academic calendar will be rescheduled and academics will not be compromised . Therefore donot panic about Syllabus, exams or deadlines. Stay home Stay Safe and take care of you health.