

Open Elective Courses offered at the Second Semester PG programme for the Academic year 2023-24

Instructions to the Chairpersons and the Principals

1. Students are free to make choices of Open Elective courses offered to any II Semester P.G. Programme other than their current programme.
2. The application form, instructions, syllabi of the Open Elective courses and codes of the courses and the institutions are available in the University web site. These could be downloaded from <http://www.mangaloreuniversity.ac.in/open-elective> .
3. Students have to be advised to read the instructions carefully before filling up the applications and submit it to the Chairperson/Principal of the Department/ College.
4. Make arrangements to enter the data Online (link provided in website) only on or before 07.02.2024.
5. Note that the Submission of student data in hard copy or any other format is not accepted.
6. Verify the details submitted by the students before submitting online.
7. Instruct the students to go through the syllabus before making the choices of the courses.
8. Students may be advised to choose the courses of their interest as the Open Electives. The distance to the College/Institution where such subjects are available may be taken into consideration while making the choices.
9. Advise the students to give all 10 choices compulsorily.
10. Open Elective classes are to be engaged on Saturdays only.
11. If you need any information contact openelective@mangaloreuniversity.ac.in / openelective.mu@gmail.com.

