

Supported by

ORACLE

DEPARTMENT OF FISHERIES
GOVERNMENT OF KARNATAKA

MARINE MEGAFUNA AND THEIR IMPORTANCE

IMPACTS OF GLOBALISATION

Date: 30 November 2022

Time: 09:45 AM to 12:30 PM

Venue: Prof. M.N VISHWANATHAIAH Seminar Hall,
Lecture Complex, Mangalore University

WILDLIFE TRUST OF INDIA IN ASSOCIATION WITH DEPARTMENT OF APPLIED ZOOLOGY, MANGALORE UNIVERSITY, MANGALAGANGOTRI

Time

Agenda

09:00 – 09:45	Registration
09:45 – 09:50	Welcome address by Dr. Mohammed S Mustak Professor & Chairman, Applied Zoology Department, Mangalore University
09:50 – 10:05	Introductory remark: On marine megafauna by Mr. Charan Kumar Paidi - Project lead, Wildlife Trust of India, Whale Shark Conservation Project
10:05 – 10:15	Video screening showcasing WTI's Whale Shark Conservation Project
10:15 – 10:30	Presidential address by Prof. P. Subrahmanya Yadapadithaya Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Mangalore University
10:30 - 10:50	Tea break Photo session with Whale Shark
10:50 – 11:10	Lecture 1: Dr. Prashanth Naik Professor Dept. of Bioscience, MU – Impacts Of Plastic Pollution On Marine Ecosystem
11:10 - 11:30	Lecture 2: Dr. S.M Shiva Prakash Rtd. Dean, Karnataka Veterinary, Animal and Fisheries Science University, Bidar Conservation Of Fisheries Resources
11:30 – 12:15	Poster presentation by students
12:15 – 12:20	Vote of thanks by Ms. Swathi K Nambiar , Campaign Officer, Wildlife Trust of India
12:20 – 12:40	A Street play on “Marine Plastic Pollution and it's Impact On Marine Wildlife”